FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kentner selected as new Director of Development and Neighborhood Services

WEATHERFORD (CITY OF WEATHERFORD), Texas — Kaleb Kentner has been named Director of Development and Neighborhood Services for the City of Weatherford, effective July 29.

“Mr. Kentner brings 20 years of experience in city government, including assistant city administrator, community development director and chief building official,” said City Manager Sharon Hayes. “I have strong confidence in Mr. Kentner and look forward to his leadership in handling the City’s Development and Neighborhood Services Department.”

Kentner is a certified planner from the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) and a Certified Floodplain Manager (CFM). Prior to accepting the job in Weatherford, he worked for Garden City, Kansas where he served as the Neighborhood and Development Services Director for approximately 15 years. Kentner has worked for communities in Missouri and Kansas, specializing in the areas of building inspections, code compliance, planning and zoning, development design and engineering, and community services. He is originally from southwest Missouri and graduated from the University of Central Missouri. Kentner received his certification as a Public Manager (CPM) from the University of Kansas.

“I look forward to serving the citizens of Weatherford and helping the city continue its mission of building a strong community,” said Mr. Kentner. “I am eager to start working with the talented staff in Weatherford and meet all of the wonderful community members in the City.”
